

They treated us like gentlemen we tried to act the same.

How lovely when the club has a dinner for employees and all instances when your betters observe your behavior and approve. How else can you aspire in a democracy?